The Road Back to Me really brought me back to my childhood. Something necessary for healing childhood wounds as an adult. It triggered memories that I had long forgotten. For example, I was able to recall my relationship with neighborhood friends, what I did for fun as a child, how I felt as a child, how I felt in school when so and so did this

The Road Back to Me is not only Romano's story. It is the story of us all. Romano has found a way to help those of us who have grown up feeling invisible to understand that what happened in our childhood was not our fault. In a way only a truly gifted writer can, through the telling of her own story, she reveals parts of us we have long forgotten due to childhood trauma. Although it is ...
