A fatal inversion. Toronto ; New York : Bantam Books, 1987. The second novel by Ruth Rendell writing as Barbara Vine is the story of the discovery of human bones buried in an animal cemetery and its lethal ramifications. With consummate skill, the mystery is unraveled, keeping the reader guessing about the killers' and the victims' identities. (not yet rated) 0 with reviews - Be the first.

A fatal inversion (Book, 1987) [WorldCat.org]
A Fatal Inversion Having read this at least twice in print form and watched the BBC TV adaptation, it was great to hear the unabridged audiobook. The story, set in rural Suffolk and London back in the long hot summer of 1976 and ten years on in the mid-late 1980s was brilliant to explore and the attention to detail was amazing.
