Invite your dad along to Father ' s Day... - Hillsong Hills ...

Jesus puts his distressed followers at rest by saying, " Your Father knows what you need before you ask him " (Matthew 6:8). Later, he concludes his most famous teaching on prayer, " If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! " (Matthew 7:11).

The Cattle on a Thousand Hills | Desiring God

He was Daddy, and he was always here. Now he is gone, and I still miss my Daddy. Father ' s Day is empty without him. Fathers are so important to their children. It is sad that so many children are being raised without a father. God has a perfect plan for the family—fathers first, the mother by his side, and children following in their footsteps.
