I'd say this book probably works as a crash course into ancient Sumer, so do not expect a very detailed analysis of their civilization (impossible with only 135 pages). It has certainly persuaded me to get Samuel Noah Kramer's "Sumerian Mythology" and to look into further books in the Captivating History series.

In addition to creating connections between the human world and the divine, Sumerian myths explain how the world came to be in the first place.
These myths establish the cosmic order, which places the greater gods, or Annunaki, at the top of the hierarchy, with the lesser gods, or
