Politics add the spice, the stress, the unnecessary burden in life. Whatever the politicians act, we still the same, even worse the impacted of their bad policies fall on us. I don’t want to mumble much today as my time is precious. I do care about my country. I want Malaysians to live in peace & harmony. I won’t support politicians.

Just another WordPress.com weblog ... Again, the seed is sewn in a field. The "bad" seed planted by the enemy was of a type that was indistinguishable from wheat except by the expert eye of the farmer. It's one of the reasons that the farmer tells the workers, who are not experts, NOT to pull up the tares. ... In this one act of divine ...

seems there are so many who say they are Christians but don't act like it. And sometimes I get discouraged wanting to see growth in people, when I just have to realize some people are not "good seed" – they are instead "bad seed" which has been planted by Satan. Or, I thought, perhaps this is a picture of one person's Christian life?

The Bad Seed is a 1954 novel by American writer William March, the last of his major works published before his death.. Nominated for the 1955 National Book Award for Fiction, The Bad Seed tells the story of a mother's realization that her young daughter is a murderer. Its enormous critical and commercial success was largely realized after March's death only one month after publication.

You can plant 800 seeds from one cob and get 640,000 seeds. I think you would be in business. You would be if you knew the instructions of how to plant and care for a corn seed. Every seed has instructions and needs the proper soil. Paul the Apostle said whatever a man sows that shall he also reap. We tend to focus on the bad seed people sow ...
