The Sonata in A major for Violin and Piano by César Franck is one of his best-known compositions, and is considered one of the finest sonatas for violin and piano ever written. It is an amalgam of his rich native harmonic language with the Classical traditions he valued highly, held together in a cyclic framework.

It's not often that we see a complete program of César Franck's piano music, certainly less so than other composers who comfortably fill complete albums. A superb album by Bertrand Chamayou comes to mind as a superb example, and here we have another take on the same program with no less significance.
