Father in heaven, as we approach this election on Tuesday, I pray 1) that your people will vote, 2) and that they will vote with a sense of thankfulness for a democratic system that at least partially holds in check the folly and evil in all our hearts so that power which corrupts so readily is not given to one group or person too easily;

Candidate Without A Prayer, pg 122. Featured Paragraph of the Week. May 3, 2016 "Discrimination still exists against blacks, women, gays, and Jews, but neither as overtly or permissibly as it once was. Politicians know these groups have well-organized advocates and constituencies. Now it was our turn to seek that respect.

At no time in history has the United States had such a high percentage of theocratic members of Congress—those who expressly endorse religious bias in law. Just as ominously, especially for those who share the values and views of Thomas Jefferson and James Madison, at no other time have religious fundamentalists effectively had veto power over one of the country's two major political parties. As Sean Faircloth argues in this deeply sobering yet highly engaging book, this has led to the crumbling of the country's most cherished founding principle—the wall of separation between church and state. While much of the public debate in the United States over church-state issues has focused on the construction of nativity scenes in town squares and the addition of "under God" to the Pledge of Allegiance, former politician and lobbyist Faircloth moves beyond the symbolism to explore the many ways federal and state legal codes privilege religion in law. He demonstrates in vivid detail how religious bias in law harms all Americans—financially, militarily, physically, socially, and educationally—and directs special attention to the outlandish words, views, and policy proposals of the most theocratic politicians. Sounding a much-needed alarm for all who care about the future direction of the country, Faircloth concludes by offering an inspiring 10-point vision of an America returned to its secular roots and by providing a specific and sensible plan for realizing this vision.

You must be merciless in the battle field of prayer. Our daily warfare depends on the angle we look at it. When people sleep at night and wake in the morning with nothing to do or pursue, destruction is close by. Such person is in the battle field of survival. You hardly survive without overcoming one problem or the other. You must pray without season and back it up with fasting. Before you can smite the enemy and destroy them, you must learn the act of a soldier in the Lord, a prayer warrior and a prayer warlord in the war room of fire. A war room of fire is an incubator fire house that rebuilds and rebrands you to be dangerous before your enemies. Graduates in this room are fire proof, bullet proof, arrow proof, sword proof, flood proof, and machete proof. They are dangerous to dangers of darkness. They are dangerous that enemies see them and flee. Spiritually, their eyes can't be comprehended; no wonder enemies see them and flee! This book is powerful and spiritually loaded with warfare prayer that will set you free from the camp of the enemy. Enemies that surround you will scatter. Every camp of the enemy that vows you shall be brought down shall scatter. They shall flee one by one, until you see them no more. You are not a candidate of defeat. With this book you shall scatter the plans of the enemy against you and make them lick the dust. This book will prepare you for war, win war and rule over your enemy. You will hardly experience poverty of ideas or stagnancy in life. The book shall build your faith with heavenly security that batter stagnancy and backwardness to nothing and open great doors of success to you. Surely, you will rise from the pit to the top and from the valley to mountain top. There is nothing too wrong for God to correct. Every witchcraft power assign to humiliate and harass you shall fail, in the name of Jesus. It is time you take control of situation that surrounds you. The time has come and must be fulfilled. You shall not plant for others to harvest it. No locust shall consume your harvest. Your sweat shall not be in vain. To the Lord Almighty, be the glory. Amen. Pick this book and experience wonders of God.

An accessible, adult, catholic prayer book which can become the well-used friend of the reader -- it can be kept and prayed with. This is not another book for the shelf but to accompany us in our journey. We can add our own comments in the margins, highlight a prayer we will use regularly, add extra ribbons and use the blank pages at the back of the book to supplement this volume with other prayers that we come across which we will find useful. We can make this our working journal of prayer as we lift up our hearts, day by day, to God. When we pray we learn to pray; as we pray we enter into that rich experience of prayer which George Herbert describes in his poem at the front of this book.
