Contemporary English Version (CEV) - Version Information ...

In 1995 the Full CEV Bible was released, with the Apocryphal/Deuterocanonical books following in 1999. Much like its older brother – the Good News Bible – the Contemporary English Version was translated on the principle of readability for the modern English speaker and reader. Although many believe the CEV to be a revision of the GNB, it is an entirely new translation which was aimed at a lower reading age for those with no comprehension of 'biblical language'.
