Deutsch Aktuell takes students on a journey of discovery. This three-level German program uses the vibrant thread of rich, authentic culture to weave together an engaging real-life experience with the language and the people who speak it. Deutsch Aktuell will challenge your students, keep them engaged, and put them on a path to life-long fluency. From the start, your students will "live the language" through an instructional design that provides: Open-ended, engaging communicative activities; Lively, authentic cultural coverage; Engaging technology components that speak to today's student; Intensive, varied practice opportunities, rooted in authentic applications. - Publisher.

German language text series emphasizes communication with a logical progression of language structure. New vocabulary is introduced visually at the beginning of each chapter and new dialogs and readings reflect contemporary German culture focusing on interests of German teens. Grades 9-12.

"Nobody escapes from Desolation... but for Doon Gannon, escape is the only way to survive." The prison doesn't have a name, so the inmates began calling it Desolation. The name is accurate. The complex lies several hundred feet underground. There are no guards, just an AI warden. Get topside, and there's hardly any oxygen. Scorching electrical storms explode all across the planetary surface. When they built a prison on a small rock at the ass end of space, they weren't counting on anybody trying to escape. To do so would be suicide. For convicted terrorist Doon Gannon, suicide is preferable to rotting in jail. She won't stay, not when there are so many wrongs to right in the universe. Not when so many lords of industry proclaim themselves holy and exploit their colonies. Killing such "gods" came easy to Doon, though it eventually landed her a life-sentence. The trick now is to wait for the right time, to wait for the chance to escape, to wait for the next prison transport. But then, the warden takes an interest in her. It is a learning machine, always studying its prisoners... learning from some of the worst sadists in the universe. The warden is bored, wanting to play games. And it begins calling itself the God of Desolation.

The CEFR Companion volume broadens the scope of language education. It reflects academic and societal developments since the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and updates the 2001 version. It owes much to the contributions of members of the language teaching profession across Europe and beyond. This volume contains: ? an explanation of the key aspects of the CEFR for teaching and learning; ? a complete set of updated CEFR descriptors that replaces the 2001 set with: - modality-inclusive and gender-neutral descriptors; - added detail on listening and reading; - a new Pre-A1 level, plus enriched description at A1 and C levels; - a replacement scale for phonological competence; - new scales for mediation, online interaction and plurilingual/pluricultural competence; - new scales for sign language competence; ? a short report on the four-year development, validation and consultation processes. The CEFR Companion volume represents another step in a process of engagement with language education that has been pursued by the Council of Europe since 1971 and which seeks to: ? promote and support the learning and teaching of modern languages; ? enhance intercultural dialogue, and thus mutual understanding, social cohesion and democracy; ? protect linguistic and cultural diversity in Europe; and ? promote the right to quality education for all.

Suitable for both independent study and class use, this text comprises an accessible reference grammar and related exercises in a single volume.
