Tales and true stories about hunters, their dogs and the upland game and waterfowl they hunt.

The relationships we form with animals - with dogs, cats, horses, birds, rabbits, and other pets - are full of joys and rewards. A loving human-animal relationship is built on mutual care and concern, responsibility and respect. We find that these companions draw us out of ourselves and show us what it truly means to be alive. They teach us to accept life 's struggles; to cherish its pleasures; to find purpose and meaning in what we do. The stories and reflections in this lovely book will speak to us whether we have an animal companion, long to have a pet, love someone who does, or simply cherish animals and nature. ' This fine and often touching volume . . . discusses the spiritual connection between humans and their animal companions and explores the lessons to be learned. ' Booklist

The beautifully illustrated cut-out board books introduce the tiny tots to the world of animal kingdom and encourage them to learn interesting facts about them.

From Connie Willis, winner of multiple Hugo and Nebula Awards, comes a comedic romp through an unpredictable world of mystery, love, and time travel . . . Ned Henry is badly in need of a rest. He 's been shuttling between the 21st century and the 1940s searching for a Victorian atrocity called the bishop's bird stump. It 's part of a project to restore the famed Coventry Cathedral, destroyed in a Nazi air raid over a hundred years earlier. But then Verity Kindle, a fellow time traveler, inadvertently brings back something from the past. Now Ned must jump back to the Victorian era to help Verity put things right—not only to save the project but to prevent altering history itself.
