A handbook of spiritual living for contemporary readers based on the 2000-year-old practices of the Essenes.

Ancient scriptures, hidden from the world for centuries, have recently attracted unprecedented popular attention. Some were found among the ancient library of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Others include assorted mystical writings known as Kabbalah, and a host of books that never made it into the Bible, called Apocrypha (which means "hidden") and the Pseudepigrapha (called "false writings" by those who suppressed them). Additionally, there are the Gnostic texts of Nag Hammadi -- a location in Egypt where a treasure trove of lost books was discovered in the middle of the twentieth century. Collectively, they comprise the "Lost Bible." For centuries, these manuscripts were systematically suppressed because their liberating messages of individual power and worth challenged the authority and pet philosophies of political and religious leaders.

Hebrew scholar Kenneth Hanson captures all the mystery and excitement of the rediscovery of the scrolls, the half-century of intrigue that followed, and the ancient Hebrew sect that wrote, preserved, and died defending these treasured works.

God has appeared over the ages through many sacred texts that have become a heritage for humanity, among which we can mention the Torah, the Tao Te King, the New Testament, the Koran, the Essene Bible, which contains the psalms of the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, Raphael and Ouriel, collected between 2003 and 2016 by the Essene Nation. Since 2017, for the first time in known history, it is God the Mother, the great female principle of creation, who transmits a direct teaching through many messages received by the Essene Nation on the land of Panama. In 2019, through her 19 rules, God the Mother awakens and instructs us on an art of living with her virtues. It is the announcement of a new way of being on earth, at the dawn of a fundamental turnaround for the future of the world. An exceptional historical book, born of the alliance of a nation of enlightened men and women with God, at a time when all religions of men are collapsing.

From the team that brought you The Obstacle Is the Way and Ego Is the Enemy, a beautiful daily devotional of Stoic meditations—an instant Wall Street Journal and USA Today Bestseller. Why have history's greatest minds—from George Washington to Frederick the Great to Ralph Waldo Emerson, along with today's top performers from Super Bowl-winning football coaches to CEOs and celebrities—embraced the wisdom of the ancient Stoics? Because they realize that the most valuable wisdom is timeless and that philosophy is for living a better life, not a classroom exercise. The Daily Stoic offers 366 days of Stoic insights and exercises, featuring all-new translations from the Emperor Marcus Aurelius, the playwright Seneca, or slave-turned-philosopher Epictetus, as well as lesser-known luminaries like Zeno, Cleanthes, and Musonius Rufus. Every day of the year you'll find one of their pithy, powerful quotations, as well as historical anecdotes, provocative commentary, and a helpful glossary of Greek terms. By following these teachings over the course of a year (and, indeed, for years to come) you'll find the serenity, self-knowledge, and resilience you need to live well.

Hanson explores the story behind the meaning of Kabbalist mysteries: the sacred Name of God with its immense creative power, secret understandings of Creation, the art of numerology, and the practice of magic that developed from Kabbalist studies.

1896 Translated from the Slavonic by W.R. Morfill. Reader in Russian and the other Slavonic languages. Edited, with introductory notes & indices by R. H. Charles, M.A., Trinity college, Dublin & Exeter college, Oxford. (1896). the Secrets of Enoch is.

"The Kolbrin Bible is a 2-part, 11-book secular anthology. The first six books are called the "Egyptian texts" and were penned by Egyptian academicians following the Hebrew Exodus. The last five books are called the "Celtic texts" and were penned by Celtic priests following the death of Jesus. Several accounts describe an object in orbit around our sun called the "Destroyer," which the Celtic authors call the "Frightener." According to recently translated Sumerian texts, this object (also known as Nibiru or Planet X) is in a 3600-year orbit around our sun, and The Kolbrin Bible warns us
