ATOL - Protecting holidaymakers since 1973. The law says your holiday must be protected if it is a package holiday. ATOL (which stands for Air Travel Organiser's Licence) is a UK financial protection scheme and it protects most air package holidays sold by travel businesses that are based in the UK. The scheme also applies to some flight bookings, usually those where you book flights (including UK domestic flights) but do not receive your tickets immediately.

About ATOL | UK Civil Aviation Authority

ATOL stands for Air Travel Organiser's Licence. It is a government-run financial protection scheme operated by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). ATOL covers package holidays that include flights, and some flight only sales. If the travel arrangements you buy are ATOL protected, you will receive an ATOL Certificate from your travel company at the time you make your payment, and you will need to keep the certificate safe.
