The classic guide to working from home and why we should embrace a virtual office, from the bestselling authors of Rework “ A paradigm-smashing, compulsively readable case for a radically remote workplace. ” —Susan Cain, New York Times bestselling author of *Quiet Does working from home—or anywhere else but the office—make sense? In Remote, Jason Fried and David Heinemeier Hansson, the founders of Basecamp, bring new insight to the hotly debated argument. While providing a complete overview of remote work ’ s challenges, Jason and David persuasively argue that, often, the advantages of working “ off-site ” far outweigh the drawbacks. In the past decade, the “ under one roof ” model of conducting work has been steadily declining, owing to technology that is rapidly creating virtual workspaces. Today the new paradigm is “ move work to the workers, rather than workers to the workplace. ” Companies see advantages in the way remote work increases their talent pool, reduces turnover, lessens their real estate footprint, and improves their ability to conduct business across multiple time zones. But what about the workers? Jason and David point out that remote work means working at the best job (not just one that is nearby) and achieving a harmonious work-life balance while increasing productivity. And those are just some of the perks to be gained from leaving the office behind. Remote reveals a multitude of other benefits, along with in-the-trenches tips for easing your way out of the office door where you control how your workday will unfold. Whether you ’ re a manager fretting over how to manage workers who “ want out ” or a worker who wants to achieve a lifestyle upgrade while still being a top performer professionally, this book is your indispensable guide.*

The desire to have a career while being available for their children can parlay into landing a flexible job that melds to a working parent's schedule and allows them to meet the financial needs of their family. Looking for work-at-home jobs for moms can be the ideal way to meet obligations at home and in a career. Women want careers. In fact, women crave careers. But, for whatever reason, the world doesn't seem altogether ready to be impartial toward gender and societal norms. So, what can women do to make a fair wage and take their professional life into their own hands?

Unfortunately, many qualified people struggle daily to find jobs in our down economy. People are sending in over a 100 resumes and not even hearing back on 1. Then we have the other group - these are people who have tapped into the work from home job opportunities. I'm NOT referring to multi level marketing or piecework freelance such as eLance but real jobs - full time and part time jobs. Jobs with insurance and 401k options. Jobs that pay well and are even better as you have no commuting expenses, no gas expenses and no work clothing expenses. As someone who has been in the direct response - infomercial- industry for many years, I've accumulated a wealth of contacts and interestingly enough, many of them offer work from home job opportunities. If you are looking for a job - either long term or to hold you over until you find the job you want, if you live in a remote area, if you are disabled, whatever your reason- if you want a legit job to do from home - I hope you'll take a look at the resources in this book. I haven't given you a 100 or 200 or 300 resources - 30 resources that I hand picked and many whose business I have personally been in.
