Oswald Chambers grew up in a religious household. His father was a pastor and Oswald felt a call to ministry when he was in college. He abandoned a career in art and enrolled in seminary in Scotland.

While in seminary he became a part of the Holiness movement, a parachurch movement defined by living a perfect life through the enabling of the Holy Spirit.

Chambers became an itinerant preacher, leading many camp meetings and revivals throughout the world. Chambers, Gertrude, and Kathleen Oswald Chambers quotes Showing 1-30 of 1,010 “ We tend to use prayer as a last resort, but God wants it to be our first line of defense. We pray when there's nothing else we can do, but God wants us to pray before we do anything at all. Most of us would prefer, however, to spend our time doing something that will get immediate results.
