The Teacher's Poem That Is Guaranteed To Make Every Parent ...

One was a teacher, the tools he used. Were books, music, and art. One a parent with a guiding hand. And a gentle loving heart. Day after day, the teacher toiled, With a touch that was deft and sure. While the parent labored by his side, And polished and smoothed it o'er. And when at last, their work was done, They were proud of what they had wrought.

Lingenfelter I dreamed I stood in a studio And watched two sculptors there,
The clay they used was a young child's mind And they fashioned it with care.
One was a teacher; the tools she used were books and music and art;
One was a parent with a guiding hand and a gentle loving heart.
And when at last their work was done They were proud of what they had wrought
For the things they had worked into the child Could never be sold ...
