“When people hear about the Big Bang, they’re tempted to think of an explosion, something that happened somewhere in space. That’s not what we mean.” The book describes the quark-gluon plasma that existed and how it underwent phase transitions and how different kinds of particles and energy transformed through this and eventually created light elements and nuclear fusion in the first ...

People with PMLD are a group of individuals with learning disabilities in the profound range, and have a number of complex healthcare needs. Their disabilities can present challenges for them and those providing care. However, PAMIS recognise that 'profound' also means deep, intense, wise and requiring great insight or knowledge.

The Dutch 2020 New Year's Eve firework ban aims to ease the burdens on hospitals that are already swamped with COVID-19 patients. "In the spring we all applauded for health care workers. On the upcoming New Year's Eve, we help our first responders by not setting off fireworks," said the minister for infrastructure and water, Stientje van Veldhoven.
