Religion in Japan and China explored. September 17, 2019. By Unity Diversity World Council. 0 Comment. 653 Views. According to surveys, the Japanese are nearly 90% Shinto, and between 70%-80% Buddhist ... Yet less than 30% say they are religious. This is due in part to translation difficulties, and also because of the very different nature of religion in Japan compared to most of the Abrahamic traditions (Islam, Christianity, Judaism) and places where those are popular.
