In the tradition of Alvin Toffler's Future Shock and John Naisbitt's Megatrends, The 500-Year Delta offers an enthralling glimpse of what businesses and individuals should expect as the five-hundred-year-old "Age of Reason" segues into the "Age of Possibility."

According to visionary

futurists Jim Taylor
and Watts Wacker,
we stand at not one
but several

crossroads-marked
points of discontinuity
between past and present. These include: The shift from reason-based to
chaos-based logic
The splintering of

caught in this swirling intersection of
change, Jim Taylor

strategies to help
companies and

course toward an
unpredictable future,

increasing chaos of
everyday life.

Describing our present point of transformation as a
"triple witching hour," the authors chart a
future course that is at
once bracing,
forbidding, joyous,
and ultimately
redemptive.

Tomorrow's

a perfect example: it
morphed from a bus
