A compelling outline of irrefutable examples, taken from the Holy Bible furnishing proof of a super-natural numbering system, which confirms God as the sole author. Miracles can come in many ways. "The Eleventh Hour" is one such example. God turned a personnel tragedy into the impetus to discover a modern day unfolding of an unknown numbering system in the Holy Scriptures, seemingly unnoticed for centuries. Within these pages you will find absolute proof that will end all debates concerning the authenticity of the Bible. Clear evidence will be presented that will support these claims. If you carefully follow these numbers and the truths they represent, they will solidify the message. After embarking on this fascinating path, the historical and prophetic implications of these numerals and their locations should challenge all to come to a realization and some genuine soul searching. Some of the topics discussed, having great significance are; The harmony of the individual writers of each book. Proof of the Bibles infallibility. Israel's place in history past present and future. Jesus Christ's Messianic fulfillment through the lineage of King David. God's Sovereign hand over His creation throughout history. Prophetic witness as it relates to current world events. Everyone should be able to determine conclusively that these writings are not some cleverly devised fairy tale or folklore from the Middle Ages, as some insinuate. It is the unadulterated word of Almighty God.

Gerl Maples is bored. She's unsatisfied. Nothing about her life excites her. She leaves her job as an elementary teacher each day with nothing to look forward to but more of the same. She keeps her head down, never looking up or toward something better. All that changes when she leaves school one day and-while running in the rain, desperate only to get somewhere dry-she's hit by a car. Thrust into a coma, Gerl enters a world few ever encounter while still alive. Gerl leaves her gray life and bursts into a world of Technicolor. She sees shimmering golden apples hanging from sparkling trees. She hears glorious music in unknown languages. She meets people from her past, long dead. She dances with a stranger and feels the stirrings of love and the promise of peace. The sisters of salvation show Gerl that there's more to life than she ever knew. They reveal to her the power of God's mercy, grace, and salvation. They offer her a love more perfect than anything this world could give. And in a final miracle, God shows Gerl that his arm is not too short to save even at the eleventh hour.

The experiences that happened in his life are written to lend support of the things The author wrote in Part 2 of this book. H. Torrevillas, M.D, 75. A General Practitioner and a Fellow of the Australian Medical Acupuncture College, After graduation {1966} from medical School (UERMMMC) worked in the hinterlands of northern Phillipines for 9 years. Seductive memories of his beautiful wife Johanna haunted Adolf Merrick's every waking moment. Until the Onyx operative came to Greece and discovered that the woman he'd loved, still loved—the woman who'd supposedly perished in an explosion—was very much alive. For twenty years, Johanna had buried memories of her life with Merrick. She'd become someone else—the only way she could survive. And now he'd found her. But how could she trust the former government assassin who'd so cruelly betrayed her? Yet once desire reignited, sweeping her back into harm's way, Johanna realized how much she'd risk for the man she'd never stopped loving....

New Delhi, 2017. It is nine years since the 26/11 terror attacks in Mumbai and the wounds have still not healed. Especially not for Superintendent of Police Vikrant Singh, who ends up landing a slap on the High Commissioner of Pakistan's face when he meets him at an event. Meanwhile, in Bhopal, five members of the Indian Mujahideen, arrested by Vikrant, break out of the Central Jail. Vikrant, suspended for the diplomatic disaster, is unofficially asked to assist the team tracking the escaped terrorists. In another part of the country, a retired tycoon, a heartbroken ex-soldier and a young woman dealing with demons of her own embark on a journey of self-discovery aboard a cruise liner from Mumbai to Lakshadweep. Fate, however, has other plans, and the cruise liner is hijacked. Racy and riveting, this is Hussain Zaidi at his best.

This collection of essays examines the idea of the future in early modern European literature, politics, religion, science, and social life. Investigating how both elite and popular writers represented their access to or control over the future, it proposes new insights into one of the defining characteristics of modernity.

The dimension of eternity has been lost from much contemporary religious consciousness. Liberals tend to focus on action within time, as do conservatives, who see history as a battleground for a war of good against evil. Spiritual life, however, also requires nurturing a sense of eternity within time. These sermons from Marsh Chapel at Boston University follow the lectionary in highlighting the places of temporal life within eternity, and the places eternity is found in temporal life. The liturgical year is employed as the venue for articulating a comprehensive theology on the themes of the temporal and eternal aspects of Christian nurture.

Rarely do theological thinkers have the opportunity to present their own self-understanding of both their context and their methodology and the inter-relation of the two. This book gives leading theological minds from North America, Great Britain and Europe an opportunity to explore the shaping of their theological minds in regard to context and methodology. Asking 'why theology', each contributor explores their sense of call to the Christian faith, the purpose of their theological journey, and reflects on his or her context and theology. Cutting across denominational, gender, disciplinary, international and generational boundaries to explore shifts in theology and methodology, this book provides a diagnostic tool for examining where theology has come from and a compass to where theology is headed. Contributors include: James H Cone, Edward Farley, Colin E Gunton, Alistair E McGrath, Wayne A Meeks, John Milbank, JA14rgen Moltmann, Gerald O'Collins, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Kathryn Tanner, Keith Ward and John Webster.
